

Sonia Guerra, PTA

Sonia earned her Physical Therapy Assistant degree from St. Philips College in 2005. She is currently working towards her Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education at Wayland Baptist University. Sonia has devoted her experience to Physical Rehabilitation Institute for over ten years.

Education

- Currently Pursuing Bachelor of Science in Occupational Education, Wayland Baptist University, San Antonio, TX
- Associate in Applied Science of Physical Therapist Assistant, 2005 St. Philips College, San Antonio, TX
- Associate in Science, 2000 Coastal Bend College, Beeville, TX

Experience

Physical Therapy Assistant Physical Rehabilitation Institute, San Antonio, TX	2005-present
Physical Therapy Aide Physical Rehabilitation Institute, San Antonio, TX	2001-2005

Clinical Affiliations

- | | |
|---|---------------------|
| • Southwest Texas Methodist Hospital – Acute/SNF | June-July 2004 |
| • Healthlink Physical Therapy, Baptist Health System - OP | Oct-Dec 2004 |
| • HealthSouth R.I.O.S.A. – Neuro Rehab | February-March 2005 |
| • Stratton Rehabilitation Clinic – OP | March-April 2005 |

Inservices

- | | |
|-------------------------------|----------------------|
| • Arnold Chiari Malformations | June 2004/March 2005 |
| • Proper Modality Procedures | April 2005 |

Continuing Education Courses

- Problem Solving Dizziness and Balance Disorders
- How to Prevent Falls & Improve Function in Older Adults
- Vestibular Rehabilitation
- Ethical Conflicts with Health Insurance
- Evaluation and Treatment of Individuals with Dizziness and Balance Disorders
- Ethics and Medicare
- Visual Vestibular Treatment to Improve Sensory Processing, Motor Skills and Behavior
- Keeping Your Center of Gravity Over Your Base of Support
- Are You Boomer Ready? – Joint Replacement Rehabilitation
- Recent Trends in ACL Rehabilitation

Instructors

J. Thomas Davis, PhD, PT

Donna Stetz, MA, PT

Mary Hays, BSOE, PTA

Nancy Dragotta, MS, PT

Shelly V. Kozel, PT, PCS